WVFC, Inc. Code of Ethics

I will respect both private and public property and will do no collecting on private land without the owners permission.

I will, to the best of my ability, keep informed on all regulations, or rules governing collecting on public lands and will observe them.

I will, to the best of my ability, ascertain the boundary lines of property on which I plan to collect.

I will use no firearms or blasting material in collecting fossils.

I will cause no willful damage to property of any kind, (fences, signs, buildings, etc.).

I will leave all gates as found.

I will build fires in designated or safe places only, and will be certain they are completely extinguished before leaving the area.

I will discard no burning material, (matches, cigarettes, etc.).

I will fill all excavation holes which I may create.

I will not contaminate wells, creeks, or other water supply.

I will cause no willful damage to collecting material.

I agree to consider every dig site, potentially hazardous. I understand that all parties affiliated with a dig site (landowner(s), dig leader, etc) may set guidelines in addition to the West Virginia Fossil Clubs' Code of Ethics, and I agree to follow the guidelines.

I agree that parties affiliated with a dig site do not take responsibility for injuries.

By signing this form, I am stating that I have read and agree to follow the West Virginia Fossil Clubs' Code of Ethics, and I agree to keep myself and any additional parties, that I am enrolling into membership, informed of the Code of Ethics. I agree that failure to follow the Code of Ethics & club guidelines may cause membership(s) to be revoked.
